A HELPING HAND

WOMEN suffering from any form of female weakness are requested to communicate promptly with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America. This confidence has induced more than 100,000 women to write Mrs. Pinkham for advice during the last few months.

Think what a volume of experience she has to draw from! No physician living ever treated so many cases of female ills, and from this vast experience surely it is more than possible she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case.

She is glad to have you write or call upon her. You will find her a woman full of sympathy and a great desire to assist those who are sick. If her medicine is not what you need, she will frankly tell you so, and there are nine chances out of ten that she will tell you exactly what to do for relief. She asks nothing in return except your good will, and her advice has relieved thousands.

Surely any ailing woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance. Read the following illustration:

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:

In March I wrote you the following letter, asking you if your remedies would aid me:—"I am twenty-eight years old, and have three children. I suffer terribly with pain in the small of the back, dizziness, kidney trouble, nervousness, burning sensation in my stomach, and I am unable to do anything." I received a reply, a very kind helpful letter. I followed your advice. To-day, I am glad to be able to write that I am a well woman. I wish all women in my way afflicted would do as I did, and they will find relief. I think any woman who will continue to suffer with any of these trying diseases peculiar to our sex after hearing what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done in so many cases, is responsible for her own sufferings.

THE PRECISE MAN.

Advice as to the Manner of Putting on a Postage Stamp.

"When you put a postage stamp on an envelope," said a precise man to his son, "you should put it on square and true, in the upper right-hand corner, and as near as possible to the margain of the envelope. You put it on at the right-hand corner for the convenience of the stampers in the post office, so that it may be uniform in location with the stamps on other envelopes and so more conveniently and expeditiously stamped; you should study the comfort of others as well as yourself. You should put it as near as possible to the corner, so that the canceling stamp will be less likely to deface and so perhaps to obscure the address on the envelope.

"You should put it on square and true because that is the methodical and proper way to do. Many persons are disturbed by the appearance of a stamp put on in a careless and slipshod manner. And I can easily imagine that such a practice might work positive injury to you. You might have occasion to write to a man on a matter of business that was of importance to you. You might compose and write this letter with faithful care and set forth what you had to say with commendable clearness and precision, and yet upset it all by slapping on a stamp carelessly; the recipient might judge you by the one slight act done naturally rather than by the studied work done with a purpose.

"My son, don't do it; put the stamp on where it belongs, so that the little touch of color will grace the envelope and not deface it.'

ABBREVIATING TELEGRAMS.

Saving Money in This Way Is Sometimes Costly Business.

"It is false economy to attempt to save money by abbreviating telegrams, and I found it out to my cost," said a woman several days ago in the hearing of a New York Sun reporter. "It happened in this way. My sister and I went to Florida by boat, several years ago, when there was an outbreak of typoid fever in several Florida towns. My sister, Mary, was seasick all the way, and when we reached Jacksonville I telegraphed: 'Arrived, Mary ill. Return next boat.' We took the trip for the sea voyage, you know, and had no intention of staying in Florida. When our boat pulled in at the pier in New York I saw my brother-in-law and his whole family waiting for us. They looked solemn, and I said to Mary: 'Something's happened.' As we came down the gang plank they rushed at us, and, grabbing my sister, said: 'Why, Mary, is it safe for you to be up and dressed so soon?' 'Why not?' said my sister in surprise. 'Why, because the fever is dangerous.' Then it came out that they had supposed from my telegram that Mary had typhoid fever. 'Why didn't you say sea sick, instead of ill, in your dispatch?' asked my brother-in-law. 'Because it would mean an extra word,' I answered. My brother-in-law had brought a carriage from uptown to carry my sister home, and when he found that she wasn't sick he told me that, just as a lesson, I might pay for the carriage. It cost me seven dollars, and since then I have written out my telegrams in full."

FIGHTING PESTS BY STEAM.

How They Carry on the War Against Insects in Australia.

The somewhat novel system of employing steam with sulphur vapors and other chemicals for the purpose of destroying various kinds of insect pests is turning out quite a success, says the Australasian. By the pressure of steam the disinfecting vapors are forced to the very bottom of every hole and crack in the tree, and without any doubt reach the seat of the disease, thereby thoroughly destroying all insect life, together with any larvae and eggs which may be at the bottom of the hole. Any loose bark is also penetrated, and if the codlin moth grub is there its fate is sealed. It is claimed that mealy bug, red spider and a host of other pests can be eradicated by the same method. The patentee, S. Lowe, has just finished steaming and fumigating a number of orange and lemon trees in the northeastern district, the results being highly satisfactory. The government entomologist, in his valuable book on "Destructive Insects," refers to the great superiority of steam-power machines for the purpose of destroying insects over those worked by hand.

FUNNY SNAPS.

First Farmer—"Has the lawsuit between you and Heyseed been settled?" Second Farmer—"Yes, and so are the lawyers." "How do you mean?" "They've settled on our farms."—Philadelphia Record.

Wife—"Shall I put your diamond studs in your shirt, dear?" Husband—"What on earth are you thinking of? Do you want to ruin me? I have a meeting with my creditors this morning."—Spare Moments.

Circumlocutory.—A nun, caught by the lady superior in the act of kissing a male visitor to the convent, said to the abbess: "May I not then kiss the man whose mother is my mother's mother-in-law?"—Fidelio.

As he paid the amount of his check to the restaurant cashier he remarked, pleasantly: "I have only one criticism to pass on your clam chowder." "What is that?" "There are no clams in it." — Pittsburgh Chronicle Telegraph.

Exploding an Old Myth.—"Are you superstitious?" "No; I got out of that at a very early age." "How did it happen?" "I was born on Friday, April 13, and the Friday that I became 13 years old a rich uncle died, leaving me $3,000 by will."—Chicago Record.

Wanted a Big One.

The annual report of Biddeford's city missionary, just made public, shows some queer sides of human nature, as well as many pitiful cases of suffering. For instance, one woman, who had two or three small Bibles, asked the missionary to get her one of those nice family Bibles, worth about $14. One family who applied for aid were found breakfasting on fricasseed rabbit, bread and butter, mince pie, and tea, when the missionary surprised them by the unexpected call.

FLINGS AT THE FAIR SEX.

Every woman regards the confession of a young man that he is striving to be a better man as equivalent to a proposal.—Atchison Globe.

Strawber—"Why do you think you will have any trouble in keeping the engagement secret?" Singerly—"I had to tell the girl, didn't I?"—Puck.

Mrs. Gumey (with deep curiosity)—"Oh! Mrs. Glanders, do tell me about Mrs. Tenspot's scandal, won't you?" Mrs. Glanders—"My dear, it is not nearly so dreadful as you hope."—Judge.

"I don't object, Alice," said the patient father, "to your trying to make yourself look like a man. All I object to is the kind of man you succeed in looking like."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Husband—"Why, my dear! did your sewing circle keep you till half-past 11?" Wife—"Oh! no; we all wanted to go at seven o'clock, but no one dared to be the first to leave." — Humoristiche Blaetter.

She—"He whistled as he went, for want of thought. Of course, it was a boy. You wouldn't find a girl whistling for want of thought." He—"No; she wouldn't whistle; she'd talk."—Indianapolis Journal.

"Who generally gets the last word when one of your conventions gets into an argument?" And the lady orator looked pityingly at the masculine inquirer and answered: "There isn't any last word."—Washington Star.

IN SCIENTIFIC FIELDS.

Minor planets can now be detected by photography.

The refinement of measurements has reached such an extent that on lenses curvatures of 1-150,000 of an inch can be measured.

Experiments show that nitrate of silver and thallium, both metals, combine, in equal proportions at 75 degrees Centigrade, into a clear liquid which mixes with water in all proportions.

Liquid air is now an article of commerce, and is expected to prove of value not only for refrigeration, but as a source of oxygen. Nitrogen is eliminated until the product contains 70 per cent. oxygen.

Appendicitis, according to Prof. Dieulafoy, of Paris, is generally due to the progressive formation of a calculus analogous to the stones formed in the liver and kidneys. He thinks his theory is confirmed by some recent experiments in which appendicitis was produced by surgical means in rabbits.

IN UNCLE SAM'S DOMAIN.

A sponge having a circumference of five feet six inches has been taken from the waters of Biscayne bay, Florida.

An orange 16 inches in circumference was taken from a tree at Pomona, Cal. It is to be sent to Europe as a specimen of California fruit.

There are at present about 13,568,000 acres of forest in Maine, valued at $35,250,000. Two or three New England states could be hidden away in Maine's woods.

Col. John S. Cunningham, of North Carolina, is said to be the owner of the largest tobacco farm in the United States. He had nearly 3,000,000 hills to cultivate and harvest last year.

Stephen Sidisbury, of Worcester, Mass., has given $200,000 with which to build a museum of fine arts in that city. His desire to save the handsome Worcester common has induced him to make offers of several other sites for the city hall, which the authorities intend to build on the common.

HIGHLANDER COSTUME.

Caused Consternation in a French Railway Coach.

A person arrayed in full Highland costume caused a terrible commotion in a railway carriage in the Perrache station, near Lyons, recently.

Two ladies who were in the carriage shrieked as they saw the awful spectacle presented by the entry into their compartment of a man without trousers.

The Highlander, who was on his way to Nice, nevertheless took his seat with Caledonian coolness, whereupon the ladies screamed the louder. It was in vain that the apparition in the garb of the old Gaul apologized and explained the situation in bad French, and equally futile were the efforts of the station master, who assured the ladies that the gentleman in the dirk, the sporran and the tartan accessories was perfectly harmless.

"You don't run the shadow of a risk, mesdames," insisted the station master in his blandest tones; "the gentleman comes from the country where the men wear petticoats and do not use trousers."

Despite everything, however, which was said in order to calm their apprehensions, the over-timid lady travelers had to be placed in a carriage at a safe distance from where the Caledonian, stern and wild, was seated.

Ostrich Beats a Bicycle.

The Cape Times says that a peculiar experience befell a local cyclist, Donald Menzies, recently. He was riding along the main road from Cape Town to Somerset West Strand, when an ostrich, attracted apparently by what was in its eyes a novel vehicle, commenced to waltz around the bicycle. After a few preliminary antics the bird took it into its head to pace Mr. Menzies, and so long as it abstained from using its wings the cyclist and the ostrich ran a dead heat. However, after covering about half a mile in this way the ostrich utilized its stumpy wings as sails and spurted away at record-breaking pace, leaving the cyclist far behind. After that the bird troubled Mr. Menzies no more.

He Compromised.

One of Calgary's recent contingent to the coast evidently knew but little about the Chinook, judging by the story that is being told on him. Wishing to get some clams to take back with him, he asked an old squaw, who had cobwebs in her eyes and a basket on her head, what she wanted for a basketful, and the blushing brunette replied: "Sitcum dollar, hayas klosh." To this the gay Calgaryite said: "Yumping yimminy! Six dollars and all my clothes? No, by gingersnap! I'll give you $2.50, my watch and overcoat." It is unnecessary to state that the offer was accepted, as all the dusky maiden asked for the clams was four bits.

AN UNDERGROUND CITY.

Russians Discover a Town Hid in the Bowels of the Earth.

The Russians have made a singular discovery in Central Asia. In Turkestan, on the right bank of the Amou Daria, is a chain of rocky hills near the Bokharan town of Karki, and a number of large caves, which upon examination were found to lead to an underground city, built apparently long before the Christian era. In Popular Science News we find the following description of this singular city:

According to effigies, inscriptions and designs upon the gold and silver money unearthed from among the ruins, the existence of the town dates back to some two centuries before the birth of Christ.

The underground Bokharan city is a little over a mile long, and is composed of an enormous labyrinth of corridors, streets and squares, surrounded by houses and other buildings two or three stories high. The edifices contain all kinds of domestic utensils, pots, urns, vases and the like. In some of the streets falls of earth and rock have obstructed the passages, but generally the visitor can walk about without so much as lowering his head.

The high degree of civilization attained by the inhabitants of the city is shown by the fact that they built in several stories, by the symmetry of the streets and squares, and by the beauty of the baked clay and metal utensils, and of the ornaments and coins which have been found.

It is supposed that long centuries ago this city, so carefully concealed in the bowels of the earth, provided an entire population with a refuge from the incursions of nomadic savages and robbers.

THE PARIS CABBY.

For Ways That Are Dark He Has Very Few Equals.

Should an accident befall the vehicle of a Paris cabman during your occupancy, he will abandon himself to a paroxysm of grief, compute the loss, and tell in moving accents of his wife and children, whose bread will be taken from their mouths by the mishap.

But if your fingers thereupon make instinctively for your pocket, restrain them; he is insured. He pays a small monthly premium to a cab insurance company; and in the case of a smash-up, only the company suffers. A playful intimation that you are aware of this circumstance will do wonders to console him. There was, in days gone by, a cabman who made such a good thing out of accidents that he ended by adopting them as a specialty.

He confined his labors to those quarters of the town chiefly affected by the English, and his system was to pick up a benevolent English tourist (by preference a lady) and break a shaft. He knew a method of turning a corner which no shaft could resist.

Then he would beat his breast, and shake his fist at heaven; call upon the universe to witness that he was a poor man, who would be ruined by the sum it must cost to get his cab repaired, bring in his wife and children, though the unprincipled creature was a bachelor—and what could a benevolent-looking English tourist do but help him out?

A HOLY TERROR.

But the Little Battenburgs Love Her All the Same.

The ruler of Balmoral castle, according to the Strand Magazine, is not the queen, but the housekeeper, a Mrs. Mussens, a typical personage of her class, gowned always in rustling black silk, lace-trimmed apron and white cap. She and the queen are said to be excellent friends, and many a gossip have they had together when affairs of state have been laid aside.

Mrs. Mussens also stands high in the favor of the little Battenbergs, who are sure to seek her out as soon as they have landed at the castle, for she fairly idolizes the little ones and keeps many a treasure in her apartments with which to regale them.

To the world at large Mrs. Mussens is a holy terror. Her word is law, and she enforces it at the point of the bayonet or the broomstick. It is said that once the queen wanted a certain maid to whom she had taken a fancy detailed to the care of her own room, but the housekeeper remonstrated, telling her majesty that it was quite out of order and she really must not spoil the servants by undue notice. The queen was wise enough not to insist, and "dear Mrs. Mussens" won the day.

WHEN REPTILES RULED.

There Was a Time When the Globe Was in Their Possession.

There was a time "in the wide revolving shades of centuries past" when the globe was wholly in the possession of walking, swimming and flying reptiles," says an exchange. Being the dominant type, they divided naturally into three great classes.

In the oceans they became gigantic, paddling enaliosaurians; on dry land—or, rather, wet land, for the whole surface of the globe was doubtless a quagmire at that time—they became monstrous, erect dinosaurians, some of which had legs 15 feet or more in length.

Those which inhabited the regions of the air were the terrible flying pterodactyls. For a vast but unknown length of time these awful creatures literally ruled the earth. Then one by one they died out in the face of the younger and more vigorous fauna until at the present time only a few miniature alligators and crocodiles, a few toy snakes and skulking lizards and geckos remain as reminders of the enormous reptilian types that once crowded land and sea.

Early Piety.

D. L. Moody, the evangelist, told a story in Philadelphia recently about his life before his conversion, when a boy of 17. He said that while he was a pretty bad boy in his unregenerate days, deep in the follies and errors of the world, he never broke so far away from his early religious training as to forget to say his prayers every night. "I used to sleep with my brother," he said, "and if either one of us happened to jump into bed without first getting on his knees, the other would swear at him vigorously and kick him out on the floor."

HOME NOTES.

Always fold a dress skirt right side out for packing, as it will not wrinkle so much.

Half a teaspoonful of sugar will nearly always revive a dying fire, and it is always a safe thing to use for this purpose.

Kerosene oil is the best of furniture polishes. It cleanses, makes a fine polish and preserves from the ravages of insects.

Fat will not burn if it has something to do, so if it has to be left idle for a few minutes put a crust of bread or a slice of raw potato into the kettle.

Yellow stains left on white cloth by sewing machine oil can be removed by rubbing the spots with a cloth wet with ammonia before washing with soap.

A few drops of tincture of benzoin in a bowl of water is an admirable tonic for the face. The benzoin whitens the skin and prevents it from wrinkling.

A tablespoonful of the best whisky added to a cup of beef tea for an invalid is an excellent way to give a stimulant. This is especially good for anyone recovering from grip.

Do not put a coat or dress away with dust in the folds or plaits. Shake the garment well and brush with a soft whisk broom, for dust is never so easily removed as at first.

Chemists say it takes more than twice as much sugar to sweeten preserves and sauces if put in when they begin to cook as it does if the sugar is added after the cooking is done.

Soap used on the hair is apt to make it brittle. If any is to be used, tar soap is the best, and after using rinse the hair in several waters in which a little powdered borax has been dissolved.

IN SCHOOL AND COLLEGE.

Miss Helen M. Gould, the eldest daughter of the late Jay Gould, has presented a $7,000 scholarship to Wellesley college in memory of her mother, Mrs. Helen Miller Gould.

There are 2,287 foreign students in German universities this semester, out of a total number of 28,600. The foreigners are chiefly at Berlin, Leipzig, and Munich.

Seventeen years ago Rev. Rhys R. Lloyd was working with a pick and shovel in a Pennsylvania coal mine. To-day he is professor of Greek in the Pacific theological seminary at Oakland, Cal.

Mrs. Anna M. Harkness has given $50,000 to create a chair in Biblical literature in the women's college of the Western Reserve university at Cleveland in memory of her daughter, and to be known as the Florence Harkness foundation.

All the founders of McClure's Magazine are recent graduates of Knox college, Galesburgh, Ill., and the editor, Mr. McClure, is a trustee of this college. They have undertaken to assist the college in establishing "The Abraham Lincoln School of Science and Practical Arts," as a worthy memorial to Abraham Lincoln.

ALL SORTS.

Rosa Bonheur has just finished a large canvas representing a combat between two stallions. Rosa Bonheur is now 74 and has to wear glasses when she paints.

Baroness Burdette-Coutts is very fond of all kinds of animals and birds, and at her Highgate home she has an extraordinary collection of them. Goats, llamas, ponies, donkeys, nightingales, parrots, robins, and a variety of others are among her pets, and all share her favor.

Prof. Roentgen is the hero of the hour in Germany. Honors are showering upon him in his Wurtzburg home, and the university students organized a grand torchlight procession through the town to his house to congratulate the professor on his wonderful discovery.

At sight of a strange person, object or animal a baby will cry. Anything black will produce more disturbance in the mind of a baby than anything white. A child refusing to go to a relative in dark clothes would not hesitate if the suit were changed to a light color, with a white, red or blue necktie.

FOR OUR STOMACH'S SAKE.

Eminent medical authorities say that the best drink after eating is a cup of coffee, not very strong and taken without sugar or cream.

A man at light work needs about 17 ounces of food per day; at hard work, 30 ounces; at very hard physical labor, 45 ounces are necessary.

The digestive apparatus is a chemical laboratory in which processes both analytic and synthetic are continually going forward.

In all tropical countries some form of capsicum is an article of daily diet. It seems to be nature's tonic for the stomach in hot climates.

The appetite should never be artificially stimulated. Hunger and thirst are the best advisers as to when food and drink should be taken.

Skimmed milk is only 80 per cent. as nutritious as milk fresh from the cow. About 20 pounds of butter to 100 are removed by skimming.

Sure Proof.

It is said that Hon. Samuel Galloway, of Columbus, O., was one of the plainest men ever known in the state. He told many stories relative to his own personal ugliness of face with great good humor. One which he often related with much relish was that of the remark made by the little daughter of a friend in another city with whom he was dining. "Mamma," he heard the child say, in an awe-struck whisper, after a prolonged survey of the peculiar features of the guest, "that gentleman's mamma must have loved children mighty well." "Why so, my dear?" inquired the unsuspecting parent. "Oh," returned the child, in the same audible whisper, "'cause she raised him!"—Youth's Companion.

Orange Sauce.

Put in a saucepan four egg yolks, three ounces of sugar, a tablespoonful of flour, the rind of an orange, grated or chopped fine. Mix well, add a pint of boiling milk, stir on the fire until it thickens. Add a wineglass of curacoa, and beat with a small wire whip until the sauce is frothy.—N. Y. Ledger.

OF the 9,533 blue jackets in the United States navy 4,400 are foreign born and 861 of the 2,017 marines are natives of other countries than the United States.

THE Wilson tariff, according to the platform of the Indiana Republicans, "has almost destroyed our American industries"—meaning specifically American manufactures. The official reports of the treasury department show that for the nine months of the fiscal year ending with March the exports of American manufactures reached the unprecedented total of $163,187,926, which is five millions more than the figures for the whole 12 months of 1892, when McKinley reciprocity was in full blast; and the fiscal year 1891-92 was the crack year of McKinleyism.

EVERY dollar in the savings banks represents and expenditure of one hundred cents worth of labor measured in gold value. If the government should authorize the free coinage of silver, and thus establish silver monometallism, every dollar in the savings banks would shrink to fifty cents worth of gold value. In other words, every deposit would be cut in half—a gold dollar worth 100 cents would be paid for with a silver dollar worth 50 cents. It is this monstrous fraud which the advocates of cheap money insist shall be perpetrated by the congress and president to be elected in November, next.

A DISPATCH from St Louis Mo., says: One of the greatest disasters of recent years overwhelmed the city of St. Louis to night (Wednesday) in the shape of a cyclone which began shortly after 5 o'clock and for thirty minutes tore its awful way through the city with a velocity of over eighty miles an hour. Although reports from there are very meager owing to the almost total destruction of the telegraph wires it seems certain that the number of the dead and wounded will amount to fully one thousand and the damage done to millions of dollars.

The city hospital which fortunately survived the storm is filled to overflowing with mangled men, women and children, and the morgue within two hours after the end of the storm was so full of corpses that it was necessary to provide other quarters for the reception of the dead. In addition to those who were killed in their houses and in the streets, hundreds of dead are beneath the waters of the Mississippi river, Of all the steamers on the levee when the storm broke out, but one is now afloat All the others have gone down, in many instances every soul on board being lost. and others, not over two or three, being able to reach a place of safety.

Among the boats destroyed is the excursion steamer Great Republic, one of the largest steamers of the lower river Not a man escaped from her, and it is said she was crowded with ezcursionists when the storm came.

The center of the city is a wreck Many buildings have been demolished and others partially wrecked. The streets are utterly impassable to street cars, and in many places progress on foot is a matter of great difficulty. To add to the horrors of the night, the electric plants were rendered incapable of service, and the gas lamps are almost shut off, leaving the city in total darkness.

A BROADER market for Pennsylvania coal, both anthracite and bituminous, says the Philadelphia Record, opened up by a contract which was signed yesterday by Graeff, Wilcox & Co., wholesale coal dealers. The new field is Canada, a large part of which has hitherto depended for its supply on the inferior coal of Cape Breton, and the venture is especially interesting because the product of Pennsylvania's mines is to be transported across the border by means of whalebacks and barges. A good deal of American coal now crosses to Canada by rail by way of Niagara Falls, and this will be the first serious attempt to build up a large traffic by water.

The first consignment will consist of 5500 tons of both hard and soft coal, whaleback steamer Joseph R. Colby. She will carry 1,500 in her hold: and three whaleback barges, or pigs, as they are known in the shipping trade, will take the remaining 4,000 tons. The barges, which recently came here from the Great Lakes, receive their peculiar name because of their resemblance in the water to a fat hog and their general homely appearance as compared with the modern craft engaged in the coasting trade. They make up, however, in seaworthiness and strength what they lack in good looks, for none of them have been wrecked or even met with a serious disaster since their advent in the deep water trade.

Two of the barges will probably be loaded at New York for this trip, as the shippers, in order to give quick dispatch to the charters, have agreed to have the boats landed simultaneously at New York and Philadelphia. All future orders will be shipped exclusively from this port because of the better dispatch given here to vessels loading and discharging cargoes.

The distance from Philadelphia to Montreal by water is about 2,000 miles, including the run up the St. Lawrence river, and it is probably the longest run ever made by a steamer towing a heavy fleet of barges astern. This will also be the first attempt to send American coal in barges to a foreign country.

The whalebacks were secured by Barker & McCall, who also chartered the British steamship Derwent Holme and loaded her a few days ago for Montreal with nearly 3,000 tons of anthracite coal.

QUAY has been to Canton and returned, says the Harrisburg Patriot, and if he did not come away as a victor it was at least as a man who lost nothing. Mr. Quay's conference with McKinley was said to be very satisfactory; so satisfactory, indeed, that Matthew will not say anything about it to anybody, preferring to talk about the crops and the weather and matters of like importance, in that eloquent and versatile way of his, when approached on the subject.

He need not talk. It is not altogether impossible for the world to put two and two together and the political world is filling pages with such calculations Quay did not go to Canton to ascertain McKinley's financial views. These are of no consequence to him in the battle for the nomination and it would probably be an impertinence in one presidential aspirant to ask such a question of another. It is certain that he did not go there to exchange with the distinguished Ohioan stories about the weather or the crops or fishing. The secret conference of two hours' duration which the Canton newsgatherers could learn nothing about was in relation to something of importance to those who participated in it. What could it have been about?

Only one thing—the advantage of the senator. When Quay won his chairmanship fight a year ago it was believed he would be a Warwick in the field this year. It was conceded that he would control the state delegation and it was thought he might be able to dictate the presidential nomination or at least to throw it to the aspirant he preferred—either McKinley or Reed, it was believed at the time. His indorsement as a candidate for the nomination was only a blind as he had no idea of becoming a candidate in reality. He merely wanted to control the state delegation for trading. His letters to delegates a few days ago were only to procure written evidence that the delegation was his to command

Quay is a shrewd politician who floats with the current he finds if he cannot make one of his own. Holding his own delegation in hand he calmly watched the course of events. He saw the efforts of politicians in the state to create McKinley sentiment disappear in futility, and then made the state convention do what he directed. He saw that the McKinley tide would be unbroken. Then he went to Canton with the written evidence that the Pennsylvania delegates would be faithful to Quay. McKinley may need Pennsylvania's delegation; no calculation is safe which neglects the smallest item that may be counted for the opposition. Quay can give the Pennsylvanians to McKinley and he cannot assist anybody else to even moderate hopes of nomination. Quay has delegates to sell and McKinley is in the market to buy. A trade is the natural result.

McKinley will be nominated and if Pennsylvania's delegation is needed the major will get it. If he doesn't need it the delegation will probably vote for Quay. In either event the senator will get all the profit a Pennsylvania boss can get in case of the election of the Canton man.

BUSINESS of all kinds, except the business of the coffinmakers and the croakers, says the Philadelphia Record, is curtailed and depressed by the fear of financial revulsion. Business curtailment and depression operate in turn to lessen revenue by embarrassing the movement of internal and external commerce, thereby cutting down the receipts of the treasury both from excise taxation and from customs. The silver scare is, therefore, a twofold calamity. When the decision of the supreme court against the constitutionality of the income tax was announced it became inevitable that there should be a deficiency in the revenue. A revival of normal business conditions might have made the shortage only temporary; but is has become painfully evident that there can be no permanent business revival until the currency question shall have been definitely and rightly settled.

In this emergency congress might have given the country relief by arming the president with power to protect the gold reserve and retire the greenbacks by means of the issue of low interest bonds; and it might have brought revenue up to the amount required for the payment of authorized expenditure by a simple tax on beer, coffee. tea or sugar.

But congress has proved perfectly oblivious of the public interests. The protectionist wing of the opposition to the federal administration would only legislate in the interest of protection; the Populist wing would consent to no revenue bill unless it should be coupled with free silver coinage. Between the two, the interests of the people of the United States have been entirely lost sight of. All commercial and industrial undertakings stand harassed and halted by uncertainties.

The falling off in the revenues and the desperate straits into which both public and private monetary dealings have been plunged have not, however, availed to cut down the volume of expenditures. In face of a deficit of thirty million dollars for the current fiscal year, appropriations have been made by the present congress amounting to nearly $525,000,000! This beats the spendthrift record of the billion dollar congress, which had the excuse for its performance of a full treasury and redundant revenue.

Never before in the history of the Republic has there been such deliberate disregard of the public welfare' such wanton waste of the substance of the people. And the party guilty of this shameless betrayal confidently appeals to the voters for an indorsement of its infamy!

DIRE treachery is charged against the Spanish authorities in Cuba. Insurgents who have surrendered under the proclamation of invitation and promised amnesty, have been summarily executed.

Washington Letter.

Washington, May 22nd, 1896.—Senator Gorman this week made good the threat he made some time ago, when he called attention to the fact that there would not be money enough in the treasury to meet the extravagant appropriations made at this session of congress, by offering an amendment to the fortification bill authorizing the issue of $100,000,000 in 3 per cent. certificates of indebtedness. Of course the Republicans threw up their hands in holy horror at the very idea of such a thing, but none of them offered to join Senator Gorman in trying to curtail the extravagant appropriations.

Senator Quay is going to see McKinley to dicker for a place in the band wagon, and Speaker Reed is thinking unprintable thoughts. The Republican opposition to McKinley has about reached the collapsing point

Th se two eminent Republicans of the House, Walker, of Mass. and Dalzel, of Pa., exchanged this week the complimentary terms of "demagogue" and "impudent," in a little discussion brought on by the former making a kick against boss rule in the hou-e, which allows speaker Reed to control all legislation in that body.

Gen. Fitz Lee, now on his way to Cuba, opened a May festival giv n by Southern ladies of Washington in aid of the proposed Battle Abbey, to be erected as a monument to the bravery of the Southern soldiers, with a spirited speech endorsing the Battle Abbey idea, and highly eulogistic of American valor. General Lee is endowed with that mysterious quality which we call personal magnetism to a marked extent. As one of his old soldiers and admirers puts it, "I believe Fitz Lee would create enthusiasm at a Quaker meeting, if allowed to talk for five minutes"

Senator Vilas naturally resents the charge that he secured the adoption of the resolution by the senate ordering that Secretary Carlisle's recent Chicago financial speech be printed as a public document by a trick He states that his action was open and above board in the matter, and that before he asked unanimous consent for the adoption of the resolution he consulted with senators Cockrell and Teller, as representative silver men of both parties, and they assured him that they had no objection to the speech being printed as a public document so as to make it frankable.

Praise from your political enemies is often more dangerous and undesirable than censure, but the reference to the immigration bureau made by Representative Corliss, of Michigan, doesn't be long to that class. He said of this bureau, in a speech made in the house this week: "It stands out as one department of the government seeking earnestly and faithfully to execute the laws with reference to immigration, and I want to congratulate my Democratic friends that they have in this department worthy and efficient men." Ex-Congressman Stump, of Md., is at the head of the immigration bureau.

The debate on the immigration bill, which was passed brought a new orator to the front in the person of Representative Buck, of New Orleans. As a naturalized American citizen—He came to America in 1852, when only 9 years old—he opposed any burdensome restriction on immigration. At the close of his speech he was warmly congratulated, by those who agreed with him as well as by those who did not, for having made one of the best speeches of the session, from the stand point of the admirer of finished and eloquent oratory.

A movement has been started which Mr. Mark Hanna will do well to watch carefully. Its avowed object is to throw the vote of every negro delegate to the St. Louis convention against McKinley, and to either Reed or Allison. This movement is headed by the notorious Perry Carson, who has for many years bossed the negroes of the city of Washington and who has been a delegate to every Republican national conventiod for years past. Carson is an illiterate negro, but when it comes to political trickery and the manipulation of negroes he can give the shrewdest of his white brethern pointers. Mark Hanna may have to buy some of those nigs again.

Mr. John Bell Bigger, who has been clerk of the Virginia House of Delegates for years and who is always posted on Democratic politics in that state, is in Washington. When asked if the Virginia Democrats would bolt if the financial plank of the Chicago convention didn't suit them, he instantly replied: "No sir! not on your life. Bolting isn't in our line. We will stick to the party, it matters not what platform is constructed at Chicago. If the financial plank should declare for tin or zinc as a money metal it would be all right with Virginia Democrats. Party success with us is paramount to all other consierations." M.

Found Murdered in their Home.

Ava, Me., May 24.—The Sawyer family, consisting of father, mother and grown-up son, were found murdered in their home, one mile east of this place, yesterday. Ernest E Sawyer, the son, had stab wounds in the throat and right breast, had both jaws broken and head and face beaten to a jelly. He had been murdered in the barn and his body dragged to the house. The skulls of both father and mother were crushed. The three bodies were found piled together under a bed and covered with a blanket. The object of the crime appears to have been robbery. The Sawyers came here from Linn county, Iowa, last November. A young man who was seen in company with young Sawyer on Wednesday last is missing. He is suspected of the crime, and if he is captured a lynching is probable.

Villages Wiped Off the Earth.

Bloomington, Ill., May 27.—Word reached the Chicago and Alton railroad officials this evening that a cyclone had demolished the village of Rush Hill, Mo., two miles from Mexico, in Audrian, county. The cyclone struck the town a few minutes before 4 o'clock and blew down the school house, crushing its inmates. The report was to the effect that fifty pupils had been killed and a number injured.

Kansas City, Mo , May 27. Renneck, Randolph county, Mo., was blown away this afternoon and several persons were killed.

Labaddie, Mo., was also destroyed. Ten persons were killed in the latter place.

Fire at Lewistown.

Lewistown, Pa., May 22.—Fire which broke out last night in the lumber yards belonging to the Franciscus estate extended to other properties and caused a loss of about $30,000. The individual losses are: The Franciscus estate, lumber and warehouse, $6 500; insurance, $1,500. Mrs. W. C. Thrush, three brick dwellings, $4,000; insurance, $1,900; Peter Dwyer, four brick dwellings, $7,500. insurance, $5,000. Whitmer, Schwarz & Co., groceries, $10,000; insurance, $2,500. Other losses, about $2,500; insurance, $900.

Death of William A. Wallace.

New York, May 22 —William A. Wallace, who at one time represented the Keystone state in the senate of the United States, died at 7:25 this morning at No. 170 West Eighty-eighth street, of paralysis of the brain. Mr. Wallace was taken ill early in February last and for the past month has been unconscious most of the time. The ex-senator's daughter, who is the wife of Judge David Krebs, of Pennsylvania, and the ex Senator's son, William E. Wallace, were at his bedside when the end came. The other members of his family who had been in the city for several months left for their homes in Clearfield, Pa., last Tuesday, thinking the ex-senator would live for a long time yet. A notification was sent to them of his death. His wife has been an invalid for several years at their home in Clearfield. There will be no funeral services here.

Senator Wallace leaves a widow, two sons, William and Harry, and thre. daughters, Mrs. John Wrigley, Mrse David T. Krebs and Mrs Allison O. Smith, all residing in Clearfield. The senator was in New York with a view of settling up his business when he was stricken with the illness that resulted in his death.

Senator Wallace's body will be taken to Clearfield to morrow morning at nine o'clock and will be buried in the Presbyterian cemetery at that place. The time of the funeral and interment have not yet been determined.

Governor Hastings will issue a proclamation to-day on the death of ex-Senator Wallace. The executive was a warm friend of the dead statesman and will attend the funeral if he can get away.

The Iron and Steel Trade.

Pittsburg, May 21.—The American Manufacturer in its edition to morrow will say concerning the iron and steel trade:

Another uneventful week has closed in the iron and steel trade. The situation has grown somewhat monotonous and those who predicted a quick change some time ago are now explaining. But the fact is, there is no great consumption going on in any line and business seems to be kept down to the closest limit. The steel pool is given as a reason for the inactivity. So far there is not the least sign of a break in the pool and the regulation price is being fully sustained, but the trade does not seem to improve. Of course it cannot be said that there is anything like a stagnation, as some lines show increased trade and signs of better prices. But taking the trade in general, things seem to be a waiting condition and everybody is apparently doing as little as possible, so as to provide for immediate necessities and hold off for developments.

Destructive Cloudburst.

Milwaukee, Wisconsin, May 25,—A cloudburst at North McGregor, Ia., resulted in great destruction of property and the probable loss of several lives. One body has been recovered from the debris.

A mile of the St. Paul road is under water. and trains between Milwaukee and McGregor only are running, the connection west being broken. A small telegraph office at McGregor was completely washed away.

Running through McGregor is a small stream bearing the historic name of Bloody run. This empties into the Mississippi river, just below the town, but after the cloudburst this morning the run was unable to carry the immense quantity of water, and it overflowed its banks so quickly that people were taken completely by surprise, and buildings in the ravine along the stream were inundated before they were aware or could remove much property. One body has been found and several persons are reported missing.

Devastated by a Cyclone.

Ortonville, Mich., May 25.—A cyclone swept over the northern portion of Oakland county this afternoon. The storm passed about half a mile north of this village. The path of the cyclone was half a mile wide. Every farm house in its path for a distance of fifteen miles was destroyed and between twenty and twenty five persons were killed and nearly thirty injured, some of whom will die.

Oakwood, the next village north of here, is reported to have been completely wiped out and many persons killed and injured.

At Thomas, which is located a few miles east of here, many buildings were destroyed and it is believed five persons lost their lives.

Metamora, a town a few miles north of Thomas, on the line of the Michigan Central, suffered severely and several persons were killed.

Were Burned to Death.

Chicago, May 24 —Four people were burned to death and one injured for life by a fire which occurred this morning at 148 Townsend street. At that number lived Otto Malm, a carpenter, with his wife and three children. At 7 o'clock this morning Mrs. Malm was preparing breakfast on a gasoline stove when the gasoline exploded and set fire to the building. The structure was of wood and the family were all on the second floor in bed with the exception of Mrs. Malm. The fire spread rapidly and cries of agony from the burning people was the first warning the outsiders had of the fire. Before the fire department responded to an alarm Otto Malm, the father was burned to death. The children, Otto, aged 8; Allen, aged 3, and Hylia, aged 6, were taken out alive but were badly burned. Mrs. Malm will recover.

Torn up by a Tornado.

Neodosha. Kas., May 24 —A tornado passed through the western part of this country early yesterday morning. At La Fontaine two business houses, the Missouri Pacific station and the Christianchurch were blown down, and almost every house in the village was wrecked, A score of farm houses were destroyed. Aaron Edwards, a farmer, was fatally injured, and many others severely hurt. Hail and rain accompanied the wind and destroyed every vestige of vegetation. The damage to crops is heavy. The area of the damaged district is about 75 square miles.

Marshalltown, Ia., May 24.—A terrific cloudburst between this city and State Center swept away nearly a mile of the Chicago and Northwestern tracks, and did great damage to growing crops.

PROHIBS IN SESSION.

The National Convention Convened This Morning.

A HOT FIGHT FROM THE START.

Broad Guage and Narrow Guage Elements Clash Over the Temporary Chairmanship—Stevens, Narrow Guage, Had a Majority In the Committee.

PITTSBURG, May 27.—The national Prohibition convention, which convened at 10 a m today, was ushered in with a bitter fight over the temporary organization Chairman Dickie of the national committee reported that the committee had selected Hon A A. Stevens of Pennsylvania for that position, and a minority of the committee presented a protest or something of the kind Chairman Dickie said he would be governed by precedent and would not officially present a minority report to the convention Right there a contest began which promises to make this the most famous convention in the history of the Prohibition party. The contest is between the broads and narrows, and principles rather than men are involved from the very start.

The national committee met last night in the ordinary of the Seventh Avenue hotel to perfect arrangements for the opening of the convention this morning and to hear the reports of officers. The result of the session was a decisive victory for the narrow guage faction. Chairman Dickie presided and W W. Wardwell of New York was secretary After the usual work of perfecting the roll and admitting a large number of proxies, business began with 48 members in their seats.

The question of temporary chairman for the convention was taken up first. George C. Christian of Arkansas nominated Hon. A. A. Stevens of Pennsylvania. Ex-Governor St. John of Kansas nominated Edward J Wheeler of New York, formerly on the editorial staff of The Voice. Both gentlemen were supported in eulogistic speeches. It was seen at once that the test of strength in the committee of the broads and narrows was on. E. W. Chafin of Wisconsin wanted a vote by roll call, but Mr. Hipp of Colorado moved for a vote by ballot. Governor St. John moved to lay the motion of Mr. Hipp on the table, and it was done. The roll was called and the vote resulted in 32 for Stevens and 15 for Wheeler for temporary chairman.

The strength of the narrow guage element was greater than expected. Homer L. Castle of this city suggested Alonzo E. Wilson of Chicago for the position of temporary secretary. He was elected by acclamation and was authorized to select as many assistants as he thought necessary. Treasurer Samuel D Hastings presented his report as treasurer, with the indorsement of auditors, which showed the total receipts of the executive committee for the year to have been $18,766.01 and the expenditures, $16,611.25. The report was satisfactory to the committee.

Drowned Herself and Children.

BELTON, Mo., May 27.—Mrs. Mark Frost, wife of a prominent farmer residing at Cleveland, near here, has drowned two of her children and herself. Mr. Frost was absent at Kansas City when the tragedy occurred.

New York Fashions

The wash dresses of this year are more beautiful than ever in coloring, design and texture. New novelties in grass cloth, which is extremely fashionable, are remarkably varied in design. Gay and bright effects as well as the daintiest subdued tones appear in these fabrics. The skirts of summer gowns are trimmed with a narrow cluster of ruffles, puffs, tucks or lace on the bottom. The waists are made in a very simple fashion, with yoke or fichu effects. Cotton materials with embroidered designs are much in vogue. Sometimes the skirt has an additional trimming of insertion, or it is plain with a beautifully embroidered waist. Ribbons as belts and sashes are generally worn. Severely plain tailor gowns of wash material are favorites of the Summer. Of all the beautiful fabrics created for the season the flowered muslins surpass everything in color as well as design. Every conceivable flower appears in harmonious tints and artistic arrangement on these diaphanous gowns. These dainty dresses are usually made with a silk underskirt of some fashionable tint. Costumes of black and white have again a wide popularity. Shirts, fancy waists, collarettes as well as hats carry out this charming combination. One of the great features in Summer millinery, is a certain combination of green and blue brought out in a mixture of delicate tulle, Dresden ribbons, Blnets or a conventionalized flowers of blue and green. Hats of plaited straw in bright colors are much in vogue. Aigrettes in peacock colors, sprangled lace and every imaginable garland of flowers adorn this really colored head year. The McDowell Fashion Magazine of the month furnish abundant illustrations of new fancies.

"La Mode de Paris" and "Paris Album of Fashions" cost $3.50 each per year or 35 cents a copy. The "French Dressmaker" is $3.00 per annum or 30 cents a copy, and "La Mode" $1.50 per year or 15 cents a copy. If you are unable to procure either of these journals from your newsdealer do not take any substitute, but apply by mail to Messrs. A. McDowell & Co., 4 West 14th street, New York.

—The U. S. supreme court has decided that the sugar bounty claims must be paid. They aggregate nearly $6,000,000.

The Biggest Fool at Large.

Is the individual who persistently neglects his health, and the means of preserving and restoring it. Many persons who are not constitutional idiots do this. They are genuine objects of compassion as well as censure. A failure of appetite, loss of sleep and flesh, impaired digestion, an uncertain condition of the bowels and symptoms of billiousness are so many warnings of the approach of disease. To disregard them is abject folly, which offended nature in due time punishes severely, if not fatally. That genuine and thoroughly reliable preventive of bodily mischief in the shape of chronic disease, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, will, if resorted to in time, avert those disorders, to the removal of which it is also fully adequate. Among these are chronic indigestion, liver complaint, kidney troubles, constipation, nervousness, rheumatism and malaria.

FRIDAY, - - - - - MAY 29, 1896.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Saturday is Decoration Day.

A new roof is being put on the Welsh Methodist church.

Editor Lloyd, of the Herald, spent Sunday in Altoona.

The Ebensburg ball club will play at Patton on Saturday.

Mr. George E. Meisel, of Carroll township, spent a few hours in town on Thursday.

County Superintendent Leech will deliver the oration in this place on Memorial Day.

Messrs. P. C. Stoltz, of Carrolltown, and H. J. Hopple, of Barr township, visited Ebensburg on Monday.

Among the miscellaneous ads will be found that of the Musical college, Freeburg, Snyder county, Pa.

Mrs. Anthony Yeager and Miss Simmerberger, of Hastings, were visitors to Ebensburg on Wednesday.

Messrs. J. R. Denny and William Kimmel of this place, shipped a car load of cows to Boston on Sunday.

Mr. John Manion, one of Susquehanna township's prosperous citizens, was a visitor to Ebensburg on Tuesday.

Mr. George Myers, of this place, who recently went West, has returned and accepted a position at Braddock.

By a recent census Patton claims to have a population of 2,286 and outlying districts will run it up to 3,000.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Heist arrived here on Friday, and are putting Maple Park in order for the reception of guests.

Mr. Henry Swoope, of Chest township, drove up to Ebensburg on Friday and spent a few hours, returning the same day.

Mr. James Singer, of Beulah, was at Carrolltown on Monday visiting his brother, Jacob, who was accidently hurt a short time ago.

A ball will be given at Loretto on Saturday evening for the benefit of the Independent Band of that place. Everybody is invited.

In a game of ball played in this place on Saturday between Ebensburg and Ashville, the score stood 13 to 2 in favor of Ashville.

On Thursday, June 11, the twenty-ninth annual reunion of the survivors of the Ninth Pennsylvania cavalry will be held at Patton.

Sheriff Coulter, at Johnstown, on Monday afternoon, sold the lock, stock and barrel of the Johnstown Times to Herman Bartley for $275.

One day last week the dwelling house of Philip Fritsch, near Lilly, was destroyed by fire, entailing a loss of several thousand dollars.

A small managerie—an Ike and two performing bears—enlivened our streets on Wednesday, to the great delight of the juvenile population.

M. D. Kittell, Esq., is having a new house placed on his premises on Julian street. George Krug and Schuyler Davis are the contractors.

Messrs. Rutler Roberts and Donald Schmaker, who have been attending the Pennsylvania University at Philadelphia, have returned home.

Johnstown is to have a shovel factory. The company will have a capital of at least $100. This is another evidence that its kind of trade is alive.

Some fine specimens of cut stone are being shipped out of the Blacklick region. They are for bridge work on the railroad improvements near Lilly.

At a meeting of the borough council on Monday evening the tax rate for the year 1896 was fixed at 3½ mills for borough and 4 mills for special tax.

Mr. John Powers, of Cresson, who, in early sixties was a resident of Ebensburg, was in town on Monday looking as fine as he had been dealing gently with him.

A carrier pigeon belonging to Mr. Ivy Collins, of Patton, was taken to Tyrone a few days ago and turned loose. It reached its home in fifteen minutes after being liberated.

Susan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Snively, died at her parents home near Sterling No. 12, near Hastings, on Tuesday, May 6th, 1896, aged 15 years, 5 months and 6 days.

Three more wires are being strung on the Postal line between New York and Chicago in anticipation of the immense business that will be occasioned by the election in the latter city.

Oatmeal is an excellent cleaner for colored clothes. Sprinkle dampened meal over the fur and rub in more until the fur is clean. Shake thoroughly, hang on a line and go over with a cloth.

J. F. McKenrick, Esq., of this place, Mr. Gearhardt, of Carrolltown, on Monday to be present at the funeral of ex-United States Senator Wallace, whose death is mentioned elsewhere and whose funeral took place at Carlisle on Tuesday.

Mrs. William W. Paul, died at her home near New Germany, in Croyle township, on Sunday, aged about 60 years. She survived by her husband and a family. Her remains will be interred at the cemetery at New Germany on Friday afternoon at two o'clock.

Mr. Ossie Wilkinson, of the firm of Wilkinson & Son, went to Kane, on Wednesday morning, where he will superintend the erection of a handsome granite monument, lately completed at their establishment to the memory of the late Hon. John Griffith, of that place.

Wellington Evans, died at the residence of his father, Thomas D. Evans, in East ward, on Sunday morning, at 2:15 o'clock, aged 19 years, 2 months and 12 days. The deceased had been ill with consumption for about two years. His remains were interred in Lloyd's cemetery on Tuesday afternoon.

During the heavy thunder storm Wednesday of last week two cows belonging to J. R. Hay, one of the prominent young farmers of the Lavansville district, Somerset county, were struck and killed by lightning. They were in an open field and were hitched to a spring-tooth harrow at the time. Lightning struck at five different points on Mr. Hay's farm during the storm.

Squire Luke Leary, of Chest Springs, was in town on Monday. Besides dispensing law and justice to the inhabitants of Chest Springs and vicinity, 'Squire Leary sells the harness and saddlery business on an extensive scale and the reputation of the hand-made harness turned out at his establishment brings him trade from all over the county. His work is guaranteed to stand and speaks for itself.

Saturday morning a scaffold in the bell tower of St. John's Roman Catholic church, in Johnstown, broke because of being overloaded and fell a distance of thirty feet, carrying with it three workmen. Fred Gearhardt, of Johnstown, had his left arm broken, the back of his head cut and his body bruised all over; Joseph Curlin, of Bellefonte, escaped uninjured; James Kelly, of Brooklyn, was badly bruised and is also thought to be injured internally.

—Mrs. Ella, wife of Postmaster Edward Kuhn, of Mountaindale, was taken to the Dixmont Insane asylum a few days ago. She is suffering from softening of the brain and there is no hope of her recovery. Mrs. Kuhn was an estimable lady only about thirty-five years of age.

—A little boy named Leo Brown, living in Dormstown, Clinton county, was nearly smothered to death recently in a big chest. He was in a neighbor's house playing in an upstairs room, got into the chest and the lid fell down. Of course he began to scream but it was some time before he could be located and when finally released was almost suffocated.

—Mr. C. F. Sargeant, of Bellwood, who is one of the committee on relics at the coming celebration of Blair County's Semi-Centennial, was in town on Thursday and paid us a short and pleasant visit. Mr. Sargeant had with him an ancient Spanish flag that was brought from Mexico during the Mexican war and which then was said to belong to the time of the invasion of Cortez. The flag is of fine silk about five feet square with the Spanish coat of arms worked in each corner, and its looks confirm its antiquity.

—The thriving town of Cresson is fast improving. Among the late improvements is a telephone line to Summit. The water works under construction are nearing completion and will soon furnish its people with an abundance of the purest spring water. Among the leading hotels is the Junction House, John McNally, proprietor, which is large and commodious and furnished throughout with an especial care for the convenience of its patrons. A handsome coupe meets every train and guests will find its proprietor a pleasant and accommodating landlord.

—Dr. William McGowan, a prominent and wealthy man, who has been residing in Ligonier for many years, committed suicide in a dark woods not far from the town on Friday by shooting himself through the brain. A dispatch from Ligonier says Mr. McGowan was in his sixty-sixth year, and was noted for his scholarship and scientific knowledge. Although a physician, he never practiced. He made a trip to Philadelphia some time ago and had been complaining of his health ever since, fearing he was going insane. He had large business interests in Pittsburg, and was reputed to be worth $200,000.

—Samuel Thomas, who one month ago on Saturday, was hurt by a falling roof while assisting in tearing down a barn on the premises of Thomas J. Reese, in the East ward, died on Saturday night as a result of his injuries. He was a man of strong constitution and his tenacity of life was remarkable as it was thought at the time he was hurt that he could not survive but a few hours at most, but he lived for one month. He was a son of the late Lewis Thomas, of Cambria township, and was born on the old homestead about 42 years ago. He is survived by his wife and three children, two girls and a boy. He was a brother of Richard L. Thomas, ex-water superintendent. His remains were interred in Lloyd's cemetery on Tuesday morning.

—Mr. and Mrs. James Ogden, who reside near Clearfield, went out a few days ago to fight the forest fires which threatened to destroy their fences and other property. They took with them their two children, aged 5 and 8 years. The children were left at the edge of the woods and told to remain their until the parents returned. The children, however, wandered away and were not found until the evening of the following day. When found the younger child was lying on a log fast asleep and his brother was guarding him. They had wandered almost twenty five miles around through the woods trying to find their way out. Several times they were compelled to run from the flames, but beyond having their faces singed by the heat, they were uninjured.

—Miles Gearhart, of Worthville, Pa., has hens that would not hatch, and that being his only way of incubating he was at quite a loss to know how to increase his stock of poultry. Finally he struck on rather an unique plan with flattering results. Selecting the biddies that did not lay and were inclined to hatch he made them a close fitting cap of heavy cloth, which completely blindfolded them and was impossible to shake off. When a chicken is blindfolded it will squat down and stay there. Thus reasoning Miles altogether has set five hens, each day liberating them for food and exercise. To date three hens have brought out all the eggs entrusted to them except three, and are as proud of their families as though they voluntarily contracted for them.

—John L. Scanlan, whose serious illness we mentioned last week, died at the residence of Andrew Boslet, in Altoona, on Thursday of last week from typhoid pneumonia. Three weeks before his death he contracted a heavy cold while attending the funeral of his brother in Carrolltown, and on his return to Altoona was confined to the house and continued to grow worse until his death. The deceased was a son of the late Henry Scanlan, Esq., of Carrolltown, and was about 54 years of age. He was a carpenter by trade and for the past two years had been in the employ of of Mr. Boslet with whom ne made his home. He is survived by three brothers William and James, of Johnstown, and Henry, of Carrolltown, and one sister, Mrs. J. C. Leech, of Carrolltown. His remains were taken to Carrolltown and interred in St. Benedict's cemetery in that place on Friday.

—About three weeks ago John Singer, of Cresson, forman of a section of the Ebensburg & Cresson branch, while engaged in his duties was assisting in putting in a new rail and to make it fit, had to cut a portion off the rail. Mr. Singer was holding the hammer chisel while another assistant was striking with a sledge. One of the blows glanced and the sledge struck Mr. Singer on the leg, between the ankle and the knee. It hurt him for a little while but he kept on at his work and in the evening spaded some garden. For several days he worked as usual but his leg continued growing worse, becoming so painful that he had to quit work and the flesh began to fall away from the bone. Grave fears were entertained that amputation would be necessary to save his his life, but at a consultation of Drs. Devereaux, of Cresson, and Fay, of Altoona, on Monday morning, they came to the conclusion that the leg would eventually get well and that amputation would be unnecessary.

—Messrs. James Wilkinson & Son, marble and granite dealers in this place, have been, for some time past, crowded with orders and are daily turning out fine specimens of work. Among the jobs lately set up in Lloyd's cemetery are a granite monument to the memory of the late James B. Zahm, and a granite monument to the memory of Mrs. Jonathan Jones. In Headrick's cemetery they have set up a handsome granite monument to the memory of Dr. Wilson and family who were drowned in the Johnstown Flood. They also erected a monument over the graves of the father, mother and sister (the latter drowned in the Johnstown Flood) of J. W. Leech, Esq. In the Wilmore cemetery they have recently set up a fine specimen of work in granite, being a monument to the memory of the late Thomas Kinney, of that place. These are but a few of the many works of art from their establishment and being always crowded with work speaks well for the enterprising firm. They are now lettering a beautiful granite monument which, when completed, will be erected over the grave of the wife of Harry Hoover, in Pringle Hill cemetery.

An Important Case.

The ejectment suit of John C. Martin against Charles A. Hughes, involving coal lands in Portage township, to the value $25,000, which was on trial during last week before Judge Bullington, in the United States district court at Pittsburg, was on Thursday of last week decided in favor of Mr. Hughes, confirming his title to the lands in question.

The land in dispute is located on the Portage branch of the Pennsylvania railroad and contains in terra firma a tract of possibly forty acres and under which the coal workings of Mr. Hughes are located.

Some months ago the defendant in the case (Mr. C. A. Hughes) secured a patent for his land, which was "unseated," from the state, which patent was confirmed to him in all matters concerning the lines in question.

The case was fought stubbornly during the time it was on trial. At times the court room took on an appearance of a lumber camp. There were brought before the court blocks from trees showing the surveys made in 1794 and 1796, this being the original survey and the time when the warrant was first issued. The costs of the case will fall upon the plaintiff, Mr. Martin, and will probably amount to several thousand dollars.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses were issued by the Clerk of the Orphans' Court for the week ending Thursday, May 28th, 1896:

Charles P. Rigby and Cora May Shaffer, Dale.

George Wess and Kate Bimle, Croyle township.

John Cebula and Karolina Uramawa, Gallitzin.

Jacob Lynch and Elizabeth Hess, Johnstown.

William Guyer, Huntingdon, and Theresa Hahn, Carrolltown.

Charles Herold and Kate Kurtz, Brownstown.

Frank Muskaretz and Sarah Shaffer, Gallitzin.

John O'Donnell and Bridget Farley, Johnstown.

Mike Fortunato and Annie Wagner, Lilly.

Tried to Ruin the Line.

Altoona, Pa., May 24.—The Phoenix telephone to Hollidaysburg has never worked properly, and after experts failed to find the trouble it was concluded that induction from the Logan Valley trolley line, which ran parallel to it, was the cause, so it was decided to change the route. The work was begun in the spring, and yesterday, while taking down a portion of the old line the mystery was solved. A fine wire had been inserted between two of the telephone wires, thus completing the circut and ruining the line. It was evidently done with malicious intent, for it was carefully placed and screened from observation. The company offers a reward of $500 for information which will lead to the arrest of the party who did the wiring.

—Thomas Wible, of Carrolltown, was in Ebensburg on Friday.

THE KEELEY CURE

Is a special boon to business men who, having drifted unconsciously into the drink habit and awaken to find the disease of alcoholism fastened upon them, rendering them unfit to manage affairs requiring a clear brain. A four weeks course of treatment at the restores to them all their powers, mental and physical, destroys the abnormal appetite, and restores them to the condition they were in before they indulged in stimulants. This has been done in more than 1600 cases treated here, and among them some of your own neighbors, to whom we can refer with confidence as to the absolute safety and efficiency of the Keeley Cure. The fullest and most searching investigation is invited. Send for pamphlet giving full information.

CAPSIZED A FERRYBOAT

A Cyclone's Death Freak at Cairo, Ills.

THOSE WHO PERISHED NUMBER 13.

Victims Were Penned Up In the Cabin to Keep Out of the Rain—Men at the Pilot Wheel Blown Into the River. Others Had Narrow Escapes.

CAIRO, Ills., May 27.—A hurricane and cyclone has struck this city.

The Opera house and Union depot were unroofed, numbers of trees destroyed and signs blown down, but no houses were destroyed nor lives lost in the city. The ferryboat Katharine was capsized at the mouth of the Ohio, drowning all on board but the captain, engineer and clerk.

The storm came up very suddenly from the northwest. The ferryboat had just started from Cairo and was still in the Ohio river and near the Illinois shore. The rain was very heavy and most of the people were all in the cabin with the doors shut. There was no warning, the boat turned over when the squall first struck her.

The captain and the clerk were both at the wheel and were blown out of the pilothouse into the water and the boat turned over on them. They happened to be so far away that as she came over they caught the guard and pulled out from beneath her. Of those in the cabin only Dr. Orr and Joseph Curry got out and they were badly hurt.

The following were drowned: Chas Gilohofer, Cairo; Daniel Hayes, Cairo; a colored woman, Cairo; Ward Rittenhouse, Cairo; Mr. and Miss Stanley, Wickliffe, Ky.; Richard Thurman, a printer, Cairo; Mrs. William Shannon and baby, Bird's Point; Mrs. Mary Jones, Jackson, Tenn.; Lewis Hall, colored, Cairo; Asbury Alexander, colored, Wickliffe, Ky.; George Davis, colored, Cairo; Miss Orr, Bird's Point.

At Bird's Point, Mo., opposite this city, a church and ten other buildings were moved from their foundations, trees blown across tracks and the running of trains interfered with.

27 PROBABLY PERISHED.

Later Reports Increase the Horror at North McGregor, Iowa.

DUBUQUE, Ia., May 27.—Passengers from North McGregor report the bodies of seven town people have been recovered; also those of six canvasmen attached to Kirkhart & Ryan's circus. The canvassmen had entered a boxcar, preparatory to accompanying their show to Winona, and they were caught in the car when the cloudburst came. The names cannot be had yet. The most conservative estimates place the loss of life at North McGregor at 27.

Conductor W. J. Durbin, who runs a passenger train between Milwaukee and McGregor, says that soon after the water from Bloody run began to rise the cries for help from the terrorized and helpless people, living upon the lowlands were heartrending, but that little could be done by those on bluffs nearby, as all were compelled to flee for their lives from the high grounds. On one boxcar, as it floated by, Mr. Durbin saw two men, supposed to be tramps, who were calling in piteous tones to be rescued. They could be seen jumping from one car to another, as they proceeded together toward the Mississippi. The houses of two families, one numbering six persons and the other five, floated by and the screams of the women, wails of the children and cries of the men were heard above the din and roar, but all who heard and saw the awful sight were powerless to rescue them. The names of the dead and missing are not obtainable at present, owing to the great confusion and lack of communication.

SEVEN KILLED IN A RIOT.

Battle Between Officers and Circus Men In Indiana.

VINCENNES, Ind., May 27.—Fort Branch, a small village south of here, has been the scene of a wholesale tragedy. A circus steamboat landed and those on board proceeded to take the town. They sold liquor on board and all were drunk and disorderly. The sale of rye and beer was ordered stopped, but little attention was paid to the demands made by the town marshal.

A posse of citizens were deputized and marched to the river where the boat was moored. The posse made an attempt to arrest the boat gang and a prolonged battle ensued, in which seven were killed and ten wounded. The citizens made an attempt to secure the craft, but failed, the circus anchoring it in mid stream. All is quiet and the circus is out of town.

Americans' Rights Respected.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—The state department is officially informed that all contracts for Cuban leaf tobacco entered into before the publication of order of Captain General Weyler prohibiting its exportation will be respected and that citizens of the United States proving themselves to be bonafide owners of such tobacco prior to the promulgation of the order will be permitted to export the same as heretofore.

Trouble at Milwaukee Subsiding.

MILWAUKEE, May 27.—Public interest in the street railway struggle is subsiding, and the cars are being more freely patronized. President Mahon of the Amalgamated Association of Street Car Workers' expects to be called to Toledo and will leave the Milwaukee strike in the hands of the executive committee.

Gold Men Stay Away.

CHICAGO, May 27.—The primaries of the free silver faction of the Democratic party passed off without incident. The members of the party opposed to free coinage kept away from the polls and the county convention was run as the silver men wished, the gold standard men staying away.

The Matabeles Defeated.

BULUWAYO, South Africa, May 27.—Captain Plumer's force has met the enemy about 12 miles from here. The Matabeles were repulsed and were followed for a few miles by the troopers. The natives made a second stand and some sharp fighting followed, but they were routed.

A Silver Revolt In Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 27.—More than 100 free silver Democrats, representing every district in the state, have met here and perfected an organization. This was done by appointing an executive committee of 14. This action almost amounts to an open revolt against the state central committee, the majority of whose members are gold standard men.

Republican Contested Delegations.

AUGUSTA, Me., May 27.—Hon. J. H. Manley, secretary of the Republican national committee, has sent to Chairman Carter a letter, in which he says that contests have been filed in a number of states and districts. There are 67 contests, involving the rights of 156 delegates.

American Missionary and Wife Hurt.

LONDON, May 27.—The Evening News publishes a dispatch from Cairo saying that serious cholera riots have occurred there. The rioters were finally dispersed by the police. An American missionary and his wife were injured.

Governor Lippitt Inaugurated.

NEWPORT, R. I., May 27.—Charles Warren Lippitt has been inaugurated as governor of Rhode Island.

I. CZAR AND CZARINA CROWNED.

Elaborate Ceremonies Marked the Notable Event In Moscow.

Moscow, May 27.—His majesty, the Emperor Nicolas Alexandrovitch, autocrat of all the Russias, and her majesty, Empress Alexandra Feodorovna, have been solemnly crowned in the Cathedral of the Assumption with the utmost ceremony and in accordance with all the religious forms and ancient rites.

The ceremonies commenced with a salute of 21 cannon shots. The line of march from the Kremlin to the church was lined deep with soldiers.

At the moment the imperial cortege appeared on leaving the palace the bells in all the churches of Moscow were rung, and the troops, in parade order, presented arms and rendered all military honors to the imperial party. Their majesties were received at the cathedral with great pomp and were crowned with elaborate ceremonies. They then returned to the palace.

In addition to United States Minister Breckinridge, the United States was represented at the coronation ceremony by General A. McD. McCook, Admiral Selfridge and others.

The czar issued a proclamation remitting many arrears of taxes, reducing taxes, remitting and reducing fines, freeing prisoners and shortening others' terms, shortening sentences of exiles and life prisoners, etc.

THE DEAD IN MICHIGAN.

An Appalling List From the Different Towns Reported.

DETROIT, May 27.—The total number of deaths resulting from the cyclone in Michigan reaches 38, with reports from some remote districts yet to come, besides which several of the injured cannot recover. The following is the death list in the vicinity:

At Addison: Thomas Bishop.

At Oakwood: Edward Fifield, Mrs. M. B. Wolverton, Mrs. William Davidson and young son, Charles Fifield's 7-year-old daughter, Edward Howe's 3-year-old child.

At Groveland and West Brandon: Henry Quick and family of four, William Mitchell's family of three, Mrs. Kitchen, Abraham Kitchen, her brother-in-law, Mrs. Clarke.

Near Ortonville: W. J. Mitchell, wife and two children, Daniel Thompson and son, Abram Quick, wife and two children, Mrs. Henry Quick, John Wilkins, John Porritt, Mrs. Joseph Porritt, John Milkey, T. E. Gleason, Mrs. T. D. Eaton, Abe Kitchell, Mrs. William Kitchen, Edwin Fifield, two children of Mrs. Howe.

At Oakwood: Mrs. Susan Stewart, Mrs. E. A. Wolverton, Mrs. William Davison and daughter Ida, Ed Fifield, child of Alfred Fifield, Ed Howe is fatally injured.

At Thomas: Charles Hicks and son.

At North Oxford: Mrs. Oscar Slate, Thomas Bishop, a farm laborer, name unknown, Joseph Smiley and son. Scores of people are more or less injured.

The windstorm that swept over Bay City developed into a cyclone in Merritt township, just before it reached Tuscola county. The cyclone struck the earth four miles east of Munger's station killing Iona Edwards and seriously injuring several others.

A number were injured at Mt. Clemens and much damage was done.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR CONCLAVE.

A Big Parade Opened the State Meeting at Scranton.

SCRANTON, Pa., May 27.—The forty-third annual conclave of the grand commandery of Knights Templar of Pennsylvania opened with a parade, which was witnessed by one of the largest crowds in the town's history. Thirty-nine commanderies, 1,507 sir knights, and 33 bands of music were in line. The parade was reviewed by R. E. Sir Warren Larue Thomas, grand master of the United States; R. E. Sir Edward B. Spencer of Philadelphia, state grand commander, and the other 14 grand officers and by seven past grand commanders. The mounted Corinthian Chasseurs No. 53 escorted the grand commandery.

The presence here of Grand Master Thomas was a surprise even to the commanders. He was joined at Philadelphia by R. E. Sir James H. Hopkins, P. G. C. and P. G. M., of Pittsburg.

The first session was held in the Frothingham theater. The routine business was transacted, chiefly the reception of the reports of the grand officers and appeals. Ex-Mayor W. L. Connell of Scranton welcomed the gathering and a response was made by R. E. Sir Irving P. Wanger of Norristown, past grand commander.

The only contest will be for the junior wardenship, the lowest office as the other offices, from that of grand commander down, are, according to custom, attained by graduation. For junior warden the candidates are: E. Sir T. Frank Penman, of Melita, No. 68, Scranton; Robert J. Linden of Philadelphia No. 2; Ezra H. Bartlett, of Mary, No 36, of Philadelphia, and Wilson I. Flemming, of Constans, No. 33, of Bellefonte.

Mr. Penman appears to have the advantage, as the Northeastern Pennsylvania members are united for him, and this section is largely represented. The Philadelphia members are divided for Mr Linden and Mr. Bartlett, while Mr. Fleming, the Bellefonte candidate, is handicapped by the smallness of the delegation from his section.

Baptists Celebrations Over.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., May 27.—The Baptist anniversaries have came to a close. On the last day the Rev. C. A. Woody of Portland, Or., addressed the assembly on "Fifty Years' Work on the Pacific Coast," which abounded in interesting facts and figures. The Rev. H. C. Woods of Colorado spoke on "Chapel Building In the West" and the Rev. Kerr Tupper of Pennsylvania gave an address on "Some Triumphs of the Gospel In North America."

STATE HAPPENINGS.

Dr. W. A. McGill, a prominent physician, died at Erie.

Central Pennsylvania grangers held a meeting at state college.

The strike at Wilkes mill, Sharon, was declared off, the men returning to work.

Frank Bennett was acquitted of the murder of Samuel Dorsey at Washington.

William Doyle was struck by a Panhandle train at Bloomfield tunnel and received injuries which may cause his death.

A number of prominent Butler young men, who were arrested while indulging in a quiet game of poker on Sunday, were fined $4 each and warned not to do it again.

Burglars were caught in the act of plundering Alexander Douglas' house at Beaver Falls. Mr. Douglas fired, wounding one of the men, but his companion carried him off.

The Sandy Ridge fire brick works at Phillipsburg have been purchased by W. A. Scott of Pittsburg and E. J. Pruner and George D. Blair of Tyrone, and works will be started in a few weeks.

C. E. SOCIETIES WON.

General Assembly Votes to Let Them Alone.

THE REPORT ON HOME MISSIONS

Almost Causes an Outbreak on the Subject of the New Presbyterian Building In New York—Closer Inspection of Mission Matters Decided On.

SARATOGA, May 27.—The Christian Endeavor societies have won a victory in the Presbyterian general assembly. Those interested in the movement were in the majority, and they exercised their power. They eliminated most of the report of the committee on relations of young people to the church and discharged the committee. The sum total of the assembly's action comprised the adoption of "a statement of relations between individual societies and churches," which was directed to be read in the various societies, and of a provision for the collection of Christian Endeavor statistics. Provision was also made for a committee of five to report on the Brotherhood of Andrew and Phillip and on boy's brigades.

The discussion on the report on home missions showed that the assembly was on the brink of an outbreak on the subject of a new Presbyterian building in New York. The action finally taken has been variously interpreted. It contemplated the inauguration of synodical sustenation of the mission work within the bounds of each synod, and some of the members of the assembly have expressed themselves as believing this to be the first step toward the disintegration of the board of home missions. The resolutions provide for closer presbyterial inspection of requisitions on the mission board; for a movement toward self-support within each presbytery and synod, and for a committee of nine to advise with the board as to retrenchment, the causes of the present debt and improved methods of retrenchment.

Resolutions favoring international arbitration were adopted.

The report of the board of aid for colleges was first considered. It was presented by Dr. Thomas F. Clelland of Duluth. The report showed receipts, $89,138; expenditures, $98,787, with a total balance on hand of $11,149. The receipts for the year decreased $30,489. During 13 years of existence the board has aided 56 institutions and expended $1,143,361. It holds mortgages of $173,388 on property valued at $942,429. The report commended the board and recommended contributions of $150,000 during the coming year.

The moderator and clerks, acting as a committee on the next place of meeting, met with representatives of Petoskey, Mich., San Francisco and other places which desire to entertain the assembly of 1897. A strong effort was made on behalf of Saratoga. The result of the conference is not yet known.

THREE BISHOPS ORDAINED.

A Strict Temperance Report Adopted by M. E. Conference.

CLEVELAND, May 27.—The impressive ceremonies incident to the installation of the three bishops-elect—McCabe, Cranston and Hartzel—attracted much interest at the M. E. conference.

Temperance was one subject under discussion and the committee report, which was adopted, shows that the Methodist church is the uncompromising foe of the liquor traffic. An important step was taken in requesting the board of bishops to memorialize congress to so modify the revenue laws as to give them less the semblance of statutes intended to legalize the liquor traffic, especially in states which have prohibition.

Part of the session was devoted to a further consideration of the report of the committee on constitution.

MORE TAX ON BEER.

Proposed In the Senate to So Amend Filled Cheese Bill.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Tariff and finance each came in for a share of consideration in the senate. Senator Sherman succeeded in having the filled cheese bill taken up, whereupon Senator Dubois (Rep., Ida.) offered an amendment adding 76 cents per barrel to the tax on beer. The senator said his amendment was intended to test the sincerity of senators who expressed the patriotic desire to aid the treasury by raising more revenue.

Mr. Sherman opposed the amendment as a skillful means to defeat the cheese bill. His motion to table the Dubois amendment was defeated—yeas, 25; nays, 39. On the question of adopting the amendment the debate became general, Senators Mills and Gray supporting and Nelson, Aldrich and Wilson opposing it. The bill was pending when amendment were disposed of by the committee, which was advocated by Mr. Pritchard (Rep., N. C.) and opposed by Mr. Lindsay (Dem., Ky.).

A bill was passed to pension, at $75 a month, the widow of General George E. Spencer, at one time United States senator from Alabama.

TO REPEAL ALCOHOL CLAUSE

The Bill Goes Through the House Analysis of the Vote.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—The house, by a vote of 165 to 59, passed the bill for the repeal of section 51 of the present tariff law, providing for a rebate on alcohol used in the arts or medicinal compounds. An amendment was attached to the bill providing for a joint commission, to consist of three members of each house to examine and report on all questions relating to free alcohol at the next session.

The opposition to the measure came almost entirely from eastern and New England states. An analysis of the vote shows that 56 Democrats, 104 Republicans and 5 Populists voted for the bill and 60 Republicans and 9 Democrats against the bill. The senate amendments to the general deficiency bill, excepting the French spoliation claims and claims under the Bowman act, were disagreed to and the bill sent to conference.

OUR SUPREME COURT PRAISED.

An English Paper Says It Is One of the Greatest.

LONDON, May 27.—Commenting on the finding of the United States supreme court that the Norwegian steamer Horsa, in conveying men and munitions of war from the United States to Cuba, had committed a breach of the neutrality laws, The Globe says:

"The supreme court of the United States has given another proof that it is one of the greatest judicial bodies in the world and has done great service in the cause of peace."

The Turks Attacking Christians.

ATHENS, May 27.—Advices received here from the Island of Crete state that Turkish soldiers at Retimo are continuing their attacks upon the Christians, who have barricaded themselves within their houses at that port.

ALBANY, May 27.—The court of appeals has decided that the Raines excise law is constitutional.

GEN. FAIRCHILD AT REST.

The Funeral In Wisconsin a Very Impressive Events.

MADISON, May 27—The funeral of the late General Lucius Fairchild was the the most impressive event of the kind ever held in Wisconsin. After private services at the house a public service was held in the state capitol, at the east entrance to the building, at which addresses were made by the Rev. Joseph Sanderson of Augusta, Ills., national chaplain of the Loyal Legion, and Dr. J. D. Butler and President C. K. Adams of the state university.

Under military escort composed of a regiment of the state militia, with a light horse squadron and a battery of artillery, the funeral cortege, over a mile long, wound its way to Forest Hill cemetery, where the remains of the dead hero were laid at rest with the ritualistic ceremonies of the G. A. R.

Cumberland Presbyterian Assembly.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 27.—The general assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church of the United States tabled the report of the finance committee, recommending that a tax be levied to defray the expenses of delegates to the assembly and to do away with free entertainment. This prevents the acceptance of Chicago's invitation for the assembly to meet there next year. A supplemental salary fund of $1,200 for the theological seminary was adopted after a warm fight.

HALL'S Vegetable Sicilian HAIR RENEWER.

The great popularity of this preparation, after its test of many years, should be an assurance, even to the most skeptical, that it is really meritorious. Those who have used HALL'S HAIR RENEWER know that it does all that is claimed.

It causes new growth of hair on bald heads—provided the hair follicles are not dead, which is seldom the case; restores natural color to gray or faded hair; preserves the scalp healthful and clear of dandruff; prevents the hair falling off or changing color; keeps it soft, pliant, lustrous, and causes it to grow long and thick.

HALL'S HAIR RENEWER produces its effects by the healthful influence of its vegetable ingredients, which invigorate and rejuvenate. It is not a dye, and is a delightful article for toilet use. Containing no alcohol, it does not evaporate quickly and dry up the natural oil, leaving the hair harsh and brittle, as do other preparations.

Buckingham's Dye FOR THE WHISKERS

Colors them brown or black, as desired, and is the best dye, because it is harmless; produces a permanent natural color; and, being a single preparation, is more convenient of application than any other.

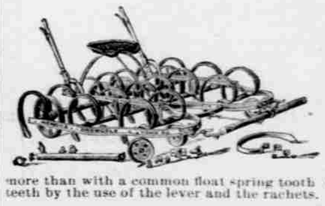
HENCH & DROMGOLD'S Latest Improved Riding or Walking Lever Spring Tooth Harrow on Wheels



The Harrow has been thoroughly tested on rough and rocky, and on soft and mellow land, and the draft is decidedly less—almost one-half a horse less than on the float spring tooth harrow, or in other words, a man weighing 150 pounds can ride upon this harrow and the draft is no more than with a common float spring tooth harrow. 15 inches can be worn off the teeth by the use of the lever and the rachets. The seat can be removed in a second.
